COCOON WAS

WON A SEVEN-HEAT TROT AFTER

Fleetwood-Trotting and Pacing on Indiana Tracks-Running Races.

COLLIDING IN THE FIRST. Spirited Contest in the 2:22 Class at

NEW YORK, Sept. 7 .- The day's races at Fleetwood began with an exciting episode when the first heat of the 2:22 class was trotted. Just as the field of horses passed the Point of Rocks, closely bunched, Cocoon and King Darlington came into collision, and Martin, who drove the stallion, was thrown violently to the ground. The horse ran away, pursued by a mounted policeman, who finally succeeded in stopping him just after he passed the wire. Martin was badly cut and otherwise injured. When Darlington started to run, Quarter Stretch was set running by his driver in order to escape being run down by the runaway stallion, and came the last quarter of a mile in a gallop. The judges raised a storm of jeers when they announced "No heat" as the result, instead of placing the horses as required by the rules of the turf. There was such a vigorous and unanimous versed their ruling and gave the heat to Quarter Stretch. Carl Don got off well in the next heat and, after a close finish, with Cocoon, gained the victory, but the flashy sorrel horse was tired and badly driven and the stout mare beat him back in 2:151/2, without much trouble. Carl Don's owner put up J. A. Goldsmith in place of Dodge, and by a masterly piece of reinmanship "Johnnie" managed to land the succeeding heat. In the next round the favorite broke his check rein and fell away to the rear on a break. Cocoon won from Darlington. In the sixth round Darlington outfooted the mare down the home stretch and won a great heat in 2:16, seeming to have the race at his command. But Cocoon came back with great courage and gameness in the seventh heat and, outtrotting the stal-lion in the home stretch, won a fine race by less than a nose. Summarles:

Pepper did the pitching for the Hoosiers and the "Blues" had no difficulty in straightening his curves when he got the ball over the plate. He was extremely wild, giving seven bases on balls and hitting three batsmen, all of which helped the home team increase its score: Pepper was wild at the start of the game, and, after hitting Stallings with a pitched ball, he sent Niles to first on four wide ones. The two men on bases executed a neat double steal. Beard hit to Roat and Stallings was caught at the plate, but he managed to dodge around long enough to allow Beard to reach second. Klusman hit safely to center and Niles and Beard scored. In the second finning the "Blues" made victory certain by piling up five runs. A wild throw by Roat gave Donahue a life. People Who Came in Contact with Mary Summers Quarantined.

Mary Summers, an unmarried colored woman, aged twenty years, died of smallpox at the pesthouse yesterday afternoon, shortly after 4 o'clock. Though her case had been under the eye of physicians for several days it was not known until yesterday morning that she was afflicted with that disease.

The apartments at the hospital in which the dead woman had been are now under a strict quarantine, as are also those peo-ple who came in contact with her. The ambulance which removed her from her home to the hospital has been fumigated and put in a separate stable, and will not be used until Dr. Wright thinks it safe to

Board of Health Precautions. As soon as the case was reported to the Board of Health, that body began taking all precautions to prevent the spread of the disease. Sanitary officers were sent to the house immediately and a quarantine established. It was found that there were about fifteen persons living in the house, many of whom were out in the city. Sanitary officers were immediately sent in search of them, and they were arrested during the day and evening and brought to the house. Last night Inspector Duval placed a quarantine upon the house of Mrs. Holt, at the corner of North and California streets. She had moved from the house on Monday. Sanitary officers Kerr and Wentling were placed as guards at the house. Inspector Schrutz will relieve one of them this morning; after that time they will take turn about watching the house day and night.
A quarantine was also placed upon the City Hospital. Inspectors Mattlock, Berryman, Shepherd and Duvall were kept busy all day yesterday in perfecting ar-rangements to prevent the spread of the disease. Wherever there was a possibility of the disease germs having reached, extraordinary precautions were ordered taken. A blanket which had been removed from the house to the police station was burned last night. The blanket had been deposited with a lot of clothing at the police station, and it was all burned. During the afternoon and last night the sanitary officers brought in a half dozen persons who had been in the house. About 11 o'clock last night Inspectors Duvail and Mattlock started for Sunnyside, where Smfth Payne, who had been living in the house, had gone. He had slept in the same room with the

AN ARTISTIC PROGRAMME.

Portfolio Club Announces Its Evenings for the Coming Season.

The most artistic programmes ever issued for any club year in this city are those of the Portfolio, which are just out. The outer page is of fine parchment with the name of the club and the dates set amid floral design. The letters are in an odd fancy form. The parchment is so thin that a second-page etching illustrating the name of the club is seen as well as the name of the illustrator, Harry Williamson. A second etching on another page was drawn by William Forsyth. The programme contains a list of the officers for the year and the names of all who have been its presidents since its organization. Of the latter there are: 1890-91, Hilton U. Brown: 1891-92. T. C. Steele: 1892-93. W. Forsyth; 1893-94, Clarence Forsyth, and for 1894 and 1895, L. H. Gibson. The committees are: General programmes, Mary C. Steele, F. A. Hetherington and J. M. Bowles: musical programme, William H. Donley, Flora M. Hunter and Adolph Schellschmidt; rooms and arrangements, Mary S. Pratt, Anna Nicholas and Roda Sellick, and on printing, J. M. Bowles and Bruce Rogers. The dates of the meetings ing, a sketch by Mr. T. C. Steels. The whole book is an admirable sample of the bookmaker's art. As souvenirs of the club the programmes will be in demand. The Park System Subject. At the Commercial Club dinner to be ments has decided to introduce for discussion the subject of a park system for Indianapolic. The dinner will only be the first step towards the movement, as the club intends to so into the matter thoroughly and get a rell expression from the public in regard to it. The dinner will probably be held in the third week of October and the committee on arrange will prepare the programme in a few days.

DEPRECATING A DECISION.

County Teachers Pass Resolutions Anent a School Fund Decision.

The Marion County Teachers' Institute finished its work yesterday and adjourned for another year. Professor Elstun occupled a portion of the concluding day with a talk on the development of subject matter in recitation and the good results obtained by working upon the emotional nature of the child and thus awakening an unusual interest. Professor Bass spoke on the application of the methods suggested by in stitute work and the failure of the stereo typed plan of teaching by these methods, They must be employed in the right way, and not in the old-fashioued school-room form. A teacher's questions had much to do he said, in bringing out thought in a read-

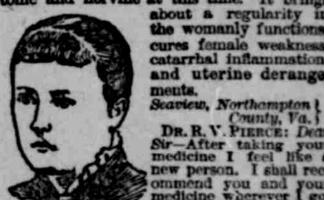

Just before the close of the afternoon session the institute adopted a resolution deprecating the Supreme Court's action in the school fund case of the State against McClelland, trustee of Wayne township. The decision, it was urged, has a tendency to shorten the term of school. Other reso-lutions were adopted indorsing the principles set forth by the instructors before the institute, namely that the school is for the child and not the child for the school; that the school must adapt itself to the child; that the character of the teacher influences the school more than his or her accomplishments; that lofty ideas of life as well as of school work are essentials; that every lesson should be made to rouch all sides of the child's nature; that the study of nature directly cultivates the aesthetical side of the child, and that the child's mental activity differs from that of the greatest scholar not in kind but in degree only; indorsing the work of the Young Peoples' Reading Circle; memoralizing Flora Kealing, a teacher of this city, who dled Nov. 12, 1898; thanking Custodian Griffin for favors. Miss Kealing is the only member of the institute who has died during the past year.

HELD UP A FARMER.

Two Highwaymen Get $75 from Lew Shrieber, of Palestine.

Lew Shrieber, a farmer living near Palestine, was robbed in broad daylight yesterday afternoon on the Brookville road, just south of Irvington. He was driving from Indianapolis to his home. Just after he left the city two men asked him for a ride, and he told them to get in the wagon. When the lonely stretch of woods south of the Christian farm was reached Mr. Shrieber felt a light tap on his shoulder. He turned and discovered his two guests standing behind, one pointing a revolver at him and the other holding a club over his head. They demanded his money. He had con-siderable money hidden on his person, $75 of which he handed over. The men then jumped from the wagon and ran toward Indianapolis. Mr. Shrieber drove at once to Irvington and informed the marshal of
